- (b) report the fact and the circumstances of such killing to the nearest Game Officer;

- (c) hand over to such Game Officer any trophy removed from such animal, which trophy shall be the property of the Government and shall be disposed of as the Director may direct; and
- (d) if so required by such Game Officer. show him the place or site where the animal was killed.

(2) An animal shall be deemed not to have been killed by accident or in error if the person killing it is the holder of a licence, permit or authority., entitling him to hunt an animal of that specie.

(3) Any person who fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty thousand shillings or imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

48.-(1) The animals specified in the Fourth Schedule to this Act are hereby declared to be dangerous animals.

Dangerous
animals

(2) The Minister may, by order in the Gazette, amend, vary or replace the Fourth Schedule to this Act.

49.-(1) Any person who wounds any animal shall use all reasonable endeavours to kill it at the earliest opportunity.

Wounding of animals

(2) If a dangerous animal which has been wounded enters a game controlled area, a game reserve, a forest reserve, a national park or the Ngorongoro Conservation Area the person wounding it shall forthwith report such entry to the nearest Game Officer, Forest Officer, Park Warden, or Conservator, as the case may be and such officer shall take all necessary measures to assist such person in killing the animal.

(3) Any person who wounds any dangerous animal and fails to kill it shall forthwith make a report thereof to the nearest Game Officer.

(4) Every report made under subsection (4) shall specify the date, time and place of the wounding, the nature of the wound, the efforts made to kill the animal and such other information as may assist in the locating the animal.

(5) Where any animal is found dead and the Director is satisfied that it is an animal which was wounded and lost by a person holding a licence, permit or authority for the hunting or capture of an animal of the same specie as the animal so found, and that such person-

- (a) after wounding the animal used every endeavour to kill it; and
- (b) on losing the wounded animal, made a report as required by this section, the Director may, at his discretion, direct that any trophy of such animal be delivered to such person.

(6) Any person who fails to comply with any of the provisions of subsections (1), (2), (3) or (4) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

Killing animal in defence of life or property allowed

50.-(1) Nothing in this Act shall make it an offence to kill any animal in defence of human life or property or for the owner or occupier of such property or any person dependent on or employed by-such owner or occupier to drive out or kill by any means what-so-ever any animal found causing damage to such property:

Provided that-

(a) this section shall not apply to the killing of an animal in defence of life or property if-

(i) the behaviour of the animal necessitating such killing is the result of molestation or deliberate provocation by or with the knowledge of the person killing such animal; or

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS RELATING TO OFFENCES

(a) Evidentiary provisions

Burden
of proof

70.-(1) In any proceedings for the offence of unlawfully hunting, wounding, killing or capturing any animal contrary to any provision of this Act, the burden to prove that the animal was hunted, killed, wounded or captured pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of a licence, permit or authority granted under this Act shall lie on the person charged.

(2) Where in any proceedings for an offence under section 67 it is proved to the satisfaction of the court-

(a) that the Government trophy which is the subject matter of the charge was found in any building, premises or ship, or any part of any building, premises or ship occupied by the accused or his dependant, whether or not the accused was physically present when the trophy was found; or

(b) that such Government trophy was found in any vehicle, baggage, package or parcel in possession of or owned by the accused or over which the accused had control at the time when the trophy was found, the court shall presume that such trophy was in the possession of the accused unless the accused satisfies the court to the contrary.

(3) In any proceeding for an offence under section 67 the burden to prove--

- (a) that the possession of the Government trophy was lawful; or
- (b) that the sale, purchase or other transaction relating to the Government trophy was lawful; or
- (c) that the accused had assumed possession of the trophy in order to comply with the requirements of section 67; or
- (d) that the trophy is not a Government trophy, shall lie on the person charged.

(b) Miscellaneous Offences

71. Any person who is found in possession of any ball ammunition, poison, snare or trap in circumstances which raise a reasonable presumption that he has used or intends or is about to use the same for the purpose of the commission of an offence under this Act shall, unless he shows lawful cause for such possession, be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years.

Possession of certain weapons in circumstances to be an offence

72.-(1) Any person having in his possession, control, custody or care--

- (a) any licence, permit, certificate, licence book, permit book, certificate book or other official document granted or issued under or used for the purposes of this Act;
- (b) official mark, stamp or ink used for or in connection with the administration of this Act;
- (c) any official uniform or badge approved for use by any authorized officer;
- (d) any trophy which is required by any provision of this Act to be delivered to any public officer or which is in his possession by virtue of his holding any public office,

Duty to take care of licences permit trophies etc shall take all reasonable precautions to prevent the same from falling into the hands or custody of any person not authorized to be in possession thereof, and if such person fails to take such reasonable precautions he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years.

(2) In any proceedings against any person for an offence against subsection (1)--

- (a) the burden to prove that reasonable precautions, were taken to prevent any article or thing to which that subsection applies from falling into the hands of an unauthorized person shall be on the person charged;
- (b) where any such article or thing is shown to have been lost or stolen the court shall, unless it is satisfied to the contrary, presume that it has fallen into the hands of an unauthorized person.

Offences relating to licences etc.

73.-(1) Any person who-

- (a) fraudulently forges, alters or defaces any licence, permit, written permission or authority granted or purporting to have been granted under this Act;
- (b) fraudulently utters any such forged licence, permit, permission or authority;
- (c) obtains any licence, permit, permission or authority by fraud, misrepresentation of a material fact or a false pretence, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years.

(2) Any licence, permit, permission or authority which has been forged or obtained by fraud, misrepresentation of a material fact or a false pretence shall be void ab initio.

(c) General Provisions

Power of search and arrest

74.-(1) If any authorized officer has reasonable grounds for believing that any person has committed or is about to commit an offence under this Act he may-

- (a) require any such person to produce for his inspection any animal, meat, trophy or weapon in his possession or any licence, permit, or other document issued to him or required to be kept by him under the provisions of this Act or the Arms and Ammunition Ordinance or any subsidiary legislation made thereunder;

Cap. 223

- (b) enter and search any land, building, tent, vehicle, aircraft or vessel in the occupation or use of such person, and open and search any baggage or other thing in his possession:

Provided that no dwelling house shall be entered into without a warrant except in the presence of two independent witnesses;

- (c) seize any animal, meat, trophy, weapon, licence, permit or other authority, vehicle, vessel or aircraft in the possession or control of any person and, unless he is satisfied that such person will appear and answer any charge which may be preferred against him, arrest and detain him.

(2) It shall be lawful for any authorized officer at all reasonable times to enter the licensed premises of any trophy dealer and to inspect the records which are required to be kept under the provisions of this Act.

(3) Any person detained or things seized under the powers conferred upon the authorized officer by this Act shall be taken as soon as possible before a court of competent jurisdiction to be dealt with according to law.

(4) It shall be lawful for any authorized officer to stop and detain any person who he sees doing, or suspects of having done, any act for which a licence, permit, permission or authority is required under the provisions of this Act for the purpose to require such person to produce the same or to allow any vehicle, vessel or aircraft of which he is the owner or over which he has control to be searched, and any person who fails to produce his licence, permit, permission or authority when required to do so, or fails to stop when ordered or signalled to do so, or fails to allow any vehicle, vessel or aircraft of which he is the owner or over which he has control to be searched shall be guilty of an offence and may be arrested without a warrant unless he furnishes in writing his name and address and otherwise satisfies the authorized officer that he will duly answer any summons or other proceedings which may be taken against him.

(5) It shall be lawful for any authorized officer to order any person stopped or arrested by him to submit in writing his name and address and the details of any licence, permit or other authority issued to him or any other article, thing or document in his possession.

(6) In any proceedings for failing to stop a vehicle, vessel or aircraft when required or signalled to do so by an authorized officer, the owner of such vehicle, vessel or aircraft shall, unless the contrary is proved by him, be presumed to have been the person in charge of, or having control over the vehicle, vessel or aircraft at the time when the offence was alleged to have been committed.

(7) Any person convicted of an offence under this section shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years.

75. Any person who-

- (a) wilfully obstructs any authorized officer in the exercise by him of any of the powers conferred upon him by this Act; or
- (b) without reasonable excuse fails to give any information or produce anything or document which he is lawfully required to give or produce under any provision of this Act,

Obstruction of authorized Officer

shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years.

76. No act or thing done by any authorized officer shall, if the act or thing was done in good faith in the exercise or purported exercise of any power conferred by this Act for the purpose of carrying out of the provisions of this Act, subject such authorized officer to any action, liability, claim or demand whatsoever.

Protection of officers

77.-(1) For the more effective carrying out of the provisions of this Act, and notwithstanding the provisions of any other written law relating to the obstruction of roads or highways, any authorized officer may erect a temporary barrier across any highway, road, waterway, taxiway or any other place, on land or water used as a passage for any vehicle, vessel or aircraft.

Erection of offices

(2) Every pedestrian or person in charge of a vehicle, vessel or aircraft on approaching such barrier shall, on being required to do so by an authorized officer, stop or bring such vehicle, vessel or aircraft to a standstill.

(3) Every person so required to stop or any person on board of such vehicle, vessel, or aircraft shall allow the authorized officer to carry out such inspection as may be necessary to ensure that no offence under this Act has been committed.

(4) Any person who fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section, or who fails to comply with any lawful order given by an authorized officer shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years.

Forfeiture

78.-(1) Where any person is convicted of an offence under this Act, the court shall order forfeiture to the Government of-

- (a) any animal or trophy in respect of which the offence was committed;
- (b) any weapon in the possession or under the control of the accused at the time when the offence was committed, whether or not there is any evidence to show that such weapon was actually employed by the accused in the commission of the offence;
- (c) any article or thing used for the storage, processing, preparing, cooking or otherwise dealing with any animal, meat or trophy in relation to which the offence was committed;
- (d) any vehicle, vessel, aircraft, tent, camping equipment or other article or thing whatsoever in respect of which the court is satisfied that it was used or employed in the commission of the offence or for the conveyance or storage of any animal, meat or trophy in relation to which the offence was committed or for the conveyance or comfort of the accused while engaged in the commission of the offence;
- (e) in the case of a conviction for an offence relation to a Government trophy, any vehicle, vessel or aircraft in which the Government trophy was found.

(2) The court shall order forfeiture in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1), notwithstanding that the vehicle, vessel, aircraft, weapon, article, or thing to be forfeited was owned by a person other than the accused:

Provided that where on the application of the owner of a vehicle, vessel or aircraft the court is satisfied-

- (a) that the owner did not know and could not by reasonable diligence have known that the vehicle, vessel or aircraft was intended by the accused to be used or employed for any of the purposes which has rendered the same liable for forfeiture;
- (b) that the vehicle, vessel or aircraft has not previously been used for or in connection with the commission of any offence under this Act or the Ordinance;
- (c) that having regard to all the circumstances it is just and equitable that the vehicle, vessel or aircraft not be forfeited, the court may make no order for the forfeiture of the vehicle, vessel or aircraft.

79.-(1) Where in any trial for an offence for which a minimum sentence of imprisonment or fine is prescribed the court is satisfied that having regard to any special mitigating factor a sentence of imprisonment or fine of a term or amount, as the case may be, less than the minimum term or amount prescribed should be imposed, the court may-

Provisions governing minimum sentences

- (a) if the trial is before the High Court, pass such sentence of imprisonment or fine as it deems fit;
- (b) if the trial is before a court other than the High Court, the court may commit the accused for sentence by the High Court with a recommendation for leniency and stating the grounds therefor and the High Court shall thereupon proceed to pass such sentence as it may deem fit.

(2) The provisions of subsections (2), (3), (4), (5) and (6) of section 5A of the Criminal Procedure Code shall apply where an accused is committed to, the High Court for sentence.

Cap. 20

(3) In any case where a person has been convicted of an offence under this Act by a court other than the High Court and sentenced to a minimum sentence of imprisonment or fine prescribed therefor, it shall be lawful for the High Court in the exercise of its appellate or revisional jurisdiction to pass a sentence of a term of imprisonment or fine of an amount, as the case may be, less than the minimum term or amount prescribed if The High Court for any special mitigating factor deems it fit so to do.

(4) Where in relation to any offence in respect of which a minimum sentence of imprisonment and, in the alternative, a sentence of a fine of a minimum amount are prescribed—

- (a) if the court passes a sentence of imprisonment of the prescribed minimum term or more, the court may, in addition thereto, impose a sentence of a fine not exceeding one-half of the maximum fine prescribed in relation to such offence;
- (b) if the court passes a sentence of a fine of the prescribed minimum amount or more, the court may, in addition thereto, impose a sentence of imprisonment for a term not exceeding one-half of the maximum term of imprisonment prescribed in relation to such offence.

80.-(1) Where a person is tried for an offence under this Act by a magistrate's court presided over by a resident magistrate the court shall, notwithstanding the provisions of any other written law, have jurisdiction to impose the maximum fine prescribed in respect of such offence.

Jurisdiction of court

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of any written law a court established for any district or area of Tanganyika may try, convict and punish or acquit a person charged with an offence committed in any other district or area of Tanganyika.

81. The Director and every officer of the Game Department of or above the rank of Game Assistant shall have the power to conduct prosecution for an offence under this Act or any subsidiary legislation made hereunder and shall for that purpose have all the powers of public prosecutor under the Criminal Procedure Code.

(d) Compounding

Director may compound certain offences

82.-(1) This section shall apply to any offence under this Act other than an offence in respect of which a minimum sentence of a fine or imprisonment is prescribed.

(2) The Director may, where he is satisfied that any person has committed an offence to which the section applies, compound such offence by requiring such person to make payment of a sum of money:

Provided that-

- (a) such sum of money shall not be less than two hundred shillings or more than five hundred shillings;
- (b) the power conferred by this section shall only be exercised where the person admits in writing that he has committed the offence and that he agrees to the offence being compounded under this section;
- (c) the Director shall give to the person from whom he receives such amount of money, a receipt thereunder.

(3) Where the Director compounds any offence under this section he may order the forfeiture of-

- (a) the animal, meat or trophy in relation to which the offence was committed;
- (b) any weapon, article or thing used in the commission of the offence or for the storage, processing, preparing or cooking of the animal, meat or trophy in relation to which the offence was committed.

(4) Where an offence is compounded in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2) and proceedings are brought against the offender for the same offence, it shall be a good defence for such offender if he proves to the satisfaction of the court that the offence with which he is charged has been compounded under subsection (2).'

(5) Where any person is aggrieved by any order made under subsection (2) or (3), he may, within thirty days of such order being made, appeal against such order to the High Court and the provisions of Part X of the Criminal Procedure Code shall apply mutatis mutandis to every such appeal as if it were an appeal against sentence passed by a district court III the exercise of its original jurisdiction,

(6) The Director shall, at such interval and in such form, as the Director of Public Prosecutions may direct, submit to the Director of Public Prosecutions a return of all offences compounded under this section.

PART IX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Rewards

83.-(1) Where in any proceedings under this Act conviction is obtained the court may, on the recommendation in writing by the Director, award a sum of money to the person or persons who gave information leading to the conviction:

Provided that-

- (a) the sum of money awarded as a reward to any person or the aggregate of such sums awarded to more than one person in any one case shall not exceed-

- (i) one-fourth of the fine or the aggregate of the fines imposed in that case; or
 - (ii) one-fourth of the value of the trophy or the trophies forfeited to the Government consequent upon such conviction; or
 - (iii) three thousand shillings,
- whichever is the smallest sum of money;
- (b) the reward shall not be paid until after the expiry of the period within which the person convicted may appeal against his conviction.

(2) The Minister may authorize the payment of rewards to persons giving information leading to arrests and convictions for offences under this Act and may by directions regulate the amount and the payment of such rewards.

84.-(1) The Minister may make regulations for the better carrying out of the purposes of this Act and for the better conservation of wildlife, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing may make regulations-

Regulations and other subsidiary legislation

- (a) prescribing the forms of applications for licences, permits, certificates and other documents which may be granted or issued under this Act;
- (b) prescribing the forms and the fees for licences, permits, certificates and other documents which may be granted or issued under this Act;
- (c) prescribing or providing for anything which may be prescribed or provided for by regulations.

(2) There may be annexed to the breach of any subsidiary legislation made under this Act a penalty not exceeding a fine of fifteen thousand shillings or a term of imprisonment not exceeding three years or both such fine and such imprisonment.

85.-(1) The Fauna Conservation Ordinance is hereby repealed.

Repeal and transitional provisions
Cap. 302

(2) Where after the commencement of this Act any person is convicted of an offence under the Ordinance he shall, notwithstanding the provisions of any other written law, be liable to be punished as if he were convicted of the corresponding offence under this Act.

86. Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of section 85, the Minister may at any time within twelve months after the commencement of this Act, by order in the Gazette, make such further transitional provisions consequent upon the repeal and replacement of the Ordinance by this Act as he may deem necessary and in the event of any conflict between any provision of any such order and section 14 or section 15 of the Interpretation of Laws and General Clauses Act, 1972. the provision of the order shall prevail.

Minister may make further transitional provision
